

Combe Down Heritage Day

Sunday 28 June 11:00–16:00

A rare chance to visit two heritage sites on the same day

Bath Stone Museum Combe Rd BA2 5HZ

Tells the industrial story behind the famous Bath stone – the material that built the city and transformed Combe Down into one of the most important quarrying areas in the region.

Combe Down Historic Jewish Burial Ground Greendown Place BA2 5DD

Tells the story of Bath's small Jewish community in the 18th-20th centuries.

Refreshments

Teas, coffees and fresh food from local suppliers at

The Hub, Mulberry Park 9:00–15:00; and at the newly re-opened and extensively refurbished King William pub, en route between the two sites, which will be serving Sunday lunch from 12:00 onward.

More info

museumofbathstone.org | bathjewishburialground.org
kingwilliambath.com | mphub.co.uk

Directions