

Combe Down Heritage Day

Sunday 26 April

A rare chance to catch two heritage sites on the same day. see map

Bath Stone Museum Combe Rd

Tells the industrial story behind the famous Bath stone – the material that built the city and transformed Combe Down into one of the most important quarrying areas in the region.

The Combe Down Heritage Society will also be at the museum, where you can find out about their work to research, preserve and celebrate the heritage of the village. Open 10:00–15:00.

Combe Down Historic Jewish Burial Ground Greendown Place

Tells the story of Bath's small Jewish community in the 18th-20th centuries. Open 10:00–16:00.

Refreshments

Teas, coffees and fresh food from local suppliers at

The Hub, Mulberry Park 9:00–15:00

The newly re-opened and extensively refurbished King William pub, en route between the two sites, will be serving Sunday lunch from 12:00 onward

More info

museumofbathstone.org | bathjewishburialground.org | combedownheritage.org.uk
kingwilliambath.com | mphub.co.uk